ANCESTORS & THE LAND

OUR PAST, PRESENT & FUTURE

MARCH 17–19, 2017 • POINT REYES STATION

WHAT KIND OF ANCESTOR DO YOU WANT TO BE?

A three-day feast of conversations, panel discussions, readings, field trips, and stories about ancestry, culture, community, food, and immigration to inspire and deepen an understanding of the relationships between people and place.

Featuring: Joanne Campbell; Michael Dahl; Drew Dellinger; Nikky Finney; John Hausdoerffer; Brooke Hecht; Wendy Johnson; Lyla June Johnston; Winona LaDuke; Ilarion (Larry) Mercurieff; Cherrie Moraga; Melissa Nelson; Celia Rodriguez; Greg Sarris; Lauret Savoy; Constance Washburn; Brooke Williams.

“This is a time of unprecedented threats to clean water and air, national parks and forests, and to productive farmland. Clearly, we will be called upon again and again to act to protect our fragile ecology in the coming months and years. We will be called upon to decide what kind of ancestors we will become.” — Steve Costa, conference co-founder

This conference always sells out. Advance tickets required. Some scholarships available.
